

Auditions

Toronto Youth Theatre

Toronto Youth Theatre is seeking talented young people aged 15 -22 who wish to develop their acting skills in a professional environment to join their 2018 summer programme directed by Irish director Alan Kinsella.

"I'm very excited to be working with Toronto Youth Theatre on its upcoming productions of #YOLO by Matthew Bulgo and FOMO by Suhayla El-Bushra. These are sharp and provocative plays, which place the lives of teenagers' center stage. Direct and honest, the plays explore the pressures and prospects facing young people on the verge of adulthood. These exciting and relevant pieces are the perfect base to hone and develop young actors' talents"

Alan Kinsella, Director.

About Toronto Youth Theatre

TYT is a registered charity and was founded in 2005.

It is dedicated to producing plays featuring young actors that reflect the lives of young people today. Our aim is to create excellence in theatre, to bring the voices of young people to a larger audience and to provide young people with an opportunity to showcase their talent and professionalism.

At Toronto Youth Theatre we inspire, train, and showcase exceptional performers from the Greater Toronto Area. Our approach is unique. We believe that the best place for young performers to learn is on stage before a live audience.
